

miVIP Surgery Centers

Foot & Ankle Surgery

Daniel Pero, DPM

Areas of Expertise

- Foot & Ankle Surgery
- Regenerative Medicine

Dr. Daniel Pero is a celebrated integrative Podiatric Foot & Ankle Surgeon who employs his considerable skills and expertise to improve the lives of patients in the Palm Beach, Florida area.

A native of Michigan, Dr. Pero earned a B.S. in Medical Technology from Michigan State University in 1996 and attended medical school at the Ohio College of Podiatric Medicine in Cleveland from 2002-2006.

While receiving his DPM degree, Dr. Pero sought additional podiatry training from the Cleveland Clinic Foundation and Case Western University, and then completed a three-year surgical residency in the Reconstructive Foot and Ankle Surgery department at St. John Providence Hospital in Southfield, Michigan.

EDUCATION:

- 1996 Michigan State University B.S.
- 2002-2006 Ohio College of Podiatric Medicine DPM
- 2009 Reconstructive Foot and Ankle Residency
- 2009 Certified in Foot & Ankle Arthroscopy
- 2017 Board Certified in Podiatric Medicine

ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

- Member of American College of Foot and Ankle Surgery, American Podiatric Medical Association
- Affiliated with the Good Samaritan Medical Center, JFK Medical Center, JFK Medical Center North Campus, and Kindred Hospital of the Palm Beaches
- Founder and owner of the Integrative Foot & Ankle Centers

PROCEDURES:

- Reconstructive Foot & Ankle Surgery
- Minimally-Invasive Procedures:
- Ankle Arthroscopy
 - Endoscopic Plantar Fasciotomy
 - Ultrasound-Guided Tenex™ Procedure for Plantar Fascia and Achilles Tendon
 - Stem Cell and PRP Injections

As a miVIP Surgery Centers physician, Dr. Pero uses the latest state-of-the-art surgical technology to meet the health and wellness needs of individuals seeking expert care and superior outcomes.